

Internet Stem Cell Research Analyst or Intern

Job Description

“Internet Stem Cell Research Analyst or Intern” would:

- A) sign their agreement with our mission statement
- B) have familiarity with doing research on the internet, including proper use of references
- C) be a college student or have a college degree
- D) gather properly referenced stem cell information from the internet as instructed by the CWC board and it's designated “medical director”
- E) create and maintain a “directory” of information obtained from the internet
- F) the “directory” will be organized alphabetically by disease, & under each disease heading will be a list of resources (hospitals, doctors, research centers, etc.) providing cures, treatments, research protocols, or other support for that particular disease entity. Phone numbers, e-mails, addresses, etc. will be provided for the patient/ family/ doctor/ interested party to contact those resources directly
- G) generate at least 5 references every week (unless pre-arranged to do otherwise) to present to the medical director
- H) be able to meet with the “medical director” regularly to receive correction and direction