Dear Friends,

On behalf of the students and parents of Manos Amigas Para un Mejor Mañana, we have some very important news for you. Manos Amigas is a partnership of individuals and families in Colonias Puerto de Anapra and Lomas de Poleo (Juarez, Mexico), and individuals and families in Kansas City, Missouri. Working together, we help students in the colonias to stay in school through sponsorships and local coordination and motivation.

You are invited to attend a special dinner for school sponsors on Thursday, August 6. The coordinator for school sponsorships in Anapra/Lomas de Poleo, Estela Huerta is visiting Kansas City and will be at the dinner. She will give an update on the program from the students' and parents' point of view.

Mark your calendar now! Don't miss this opportunity to meet Estela and find out how you, your family, your school or your parish can help out.
